This schedule may change from time to time. Therefore, it is the duty and obligation of the Movant to verify that a docket has not been canceled or changed before sending notice to the parties. The Movant is also reminded when selecting a date and noticing a motion for hearing that the notice period must comply with both the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and local rules. HANNIBAL DOCKETS
INCLEMENT WEATHER

On rare occasions, inclement weather may prevent the Bankruptcy Court from conducting the regularly scheduled dockets at Hannibal, Missouri. If such a situation should arise, a message will be posted on the Court's telephone system no later than 6:30 a.m. on the date of the scheduled docket.

Unless other information is supplied in the telephone message, the Court will not travel to the Hannibal Courthouse during inclement weather. Every effort will be made to conduct scheduled hearings at their scheduled times, by means of a telephone conference call between the St. Louis Courthouse and the Courtroom in Hannibal. If weather conditions prevent Counsel in the Hannibal area from traveling to the Hannibal Courthouse, or Court personnel are unable to travel to the St. Louis Courthouse, hearings will be continued to the next regularly scheduled Hannibal docket, unless all parties agree to an earlier setting, and verify the setting with the Court.

To determine if circumstances have interfered with the Hannibal docket, access a recorded message by dialing the number below after 6:30 a.m. on the day of the scheduled docket.
